APPEALS	None
PUBLIC COMMENT	Stacy Ostromecki referenced the HR Coordinator position and stated the notice should have been posted longer prior to making a decision to hire for the position. Stacy also inquired on how the departments handles mass emergency events, such as wildfire or floods. Chief Bennett replied that the county has emergency preparedness procedures in place for natural disasters and other major emergency events which include TFPD and outlines the roles the department will have to manage the incident.
Old Business:	None
NEW BUSINESS	Final Budget Presentation: Chief Bennett referenced the minor changes from previous budget reviews, and made mention that Debbie worked with San Miguel County and DOLA to work through the changes made by recent legislation passed by the state. These changes effect residential tax values which decreases revenues to be used for budget purposes. The budget reflects purchases of employee housing with cash and use of the existing lease purchases from
